

Christmas in Ivyland 2021

The Ivyland Heritage Association will be offering for sale the eighth in a series of commemorative Christmas Decorations celebrating the history and heritage of Ivyland Borough.

A limited production of glass ball decorations will be offered this year celebrating the memory of Ed and Terry Oldroyd. Their lovely Victorian home at 54 Gough Ave. is featured.

For anyone who missed out on our previous ornaments a few are still available. Please order accordingly below.

Please include a contact phone number and address. All IVYLAND BOROUGH residents will have their order delivered to their home address. If no one is home, a note will be placed on your door with available pick up options. For addresses NOT in the Borough, you will be notified by email or phone with available pick-up options. Quantities will be limited and you will be notified if they are sold out and your check will be returned. You may check Ivyland Heritage Association Facebook page also.
